

GOMUN terms and conditions

This document specifies terms and conditions for participants of the Gymnázium Omská Model United Nations (GOMUN), taking place 6.-9.11.2026. Do not hesitate to reach out with any possible questions through the contacts listed on our website.

Application process

1. All potential participants must submit their application through the GOMUN website. Once an application is submitted, the GOMUN organizing team will evaluate it and either accept or reject it.
2. The GOMUN organising team reserves the right to reject an application for any reason they see fit.
3. Whether the application is approved or rejected, the potential participant will be notified through the e-mail address provided during application. Note that if you have not received an email confirming the acceptance of your application, we cannot guarantee your place at the conference.
3. In case the application is approved, the participant will receive their assigned position for the conference and will be expected to pay the appropriate fee based on their role at the conference (chair, delegate or supervisor) within 14 days of being notified of the approval.
4. Failure to pay the fee within said period will result in the application being canceled. Any payments sent prior to the application's approval or after the 14 day period will be refunded.

Refunds

1. In case you have already paid the necessary fee but are unable to attend the conference, a refund of your fee is possible. The amount which the organising team will be able to refund depends on the amount of time remaining to the conference.

-more than 2 months prior to the conference : full refund is possible

-more than 1 month prior to the conference : 50% refund is possible

-less than 1 month prior to the conference : no refund

2. No refunds will be possible after the conference.
